

A website that wins a seller's trust, and an easier way to reach them

PREPARED FOR KYSON CHARLES, ACQUITAS PARTNERS · 9 OCTOBER 2026

WHAT WE LOOKED AT

Before our call we read every page of acquitaspartners.com, your Companies House record and the latest deal numbers in your sectors. CapEQ counted 155 sales under £100m in testing, inspection, certification and compliance across the UK and Europe in the twelve months to August 2026. Your site describes the right firm, founder focused, discreet and backed by operators. What a seller can't see yet is who you are, how a sale runs with you, and how your fee works.

WHAT YOU TOLD US

- Your focus right now's signing your first mandate, and then an office and a first hire.
- Sellers who got close and stopped, stopped at the fee, mostly because they didn't know how it works.
- You find owners by hand on LinkedIn, and the paid databases aren't easy to justify before the first deal.
- You liked the value calculator, and you want your own profile on the site either way.

YOUR GOALS

1. Sign your first mandate, then build towards two or three deals over the next twelve months.
2. Have sellers understand your fee before the first call, not halfway through it. It shouldn't be a surprise.
3. Reach more owners each week without hiring yet.

PHASE ONE. WHAT WE'LL BUILD

Three things, together €3,500. Each one serves one of the goals above.

Your new website

€2,500

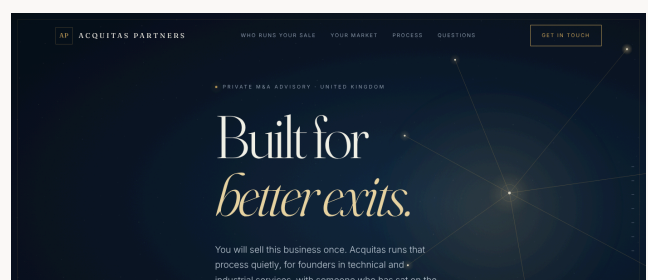

A site that shows a seller who's running their sale, and says what Acquitas stands for before they've read a word. The look, the photography and the words are built around your mission, helping owners achieve better exits, with the calm, senior feel of a firm trusted with the biggest sale of someone's life.

What's included

- Pages for Home, About you, How a sale works, Fees, Sectors, Value calculator, Questions, Contact and Privacy
- Your story and photo, so sellers know who they'll deal with
- A plain page on how your fee works, so it never comes as a surprise
- The value calculator. An owner moves a few sliders and sees a rough value for their business, then the tax on the sale, then your fee, then what they'd keep. Every owner who uses it arrives in your inbox with their answers
- An easy editor, so you can change text, swap photos and add news yourself, no code needed
- Works on phones, set up to be found on Google, moved onto your own web address, with your email left exactly as it's

How we build it

We'll collect your story, a photo you're happy with and how you explain your fee. We build the site on a private preview link, you click through it and send us your changes, with up to two rounds of changes included. Then it goes live, and we show you how to edit it yourself.

The concept you've already seen. The finished site uses your own photo and words.

Your outreach assistant€625

A simple setup that lets you reach more owners each week. The research and first drafts are done for you, and you'll stay in control of every message you send.

- One place for LinkedIn and email. Your connection requests, follow ups and replies run from one tool instead of by hand
- A research helper. Type in a company and it gives you a short brief on the business and its owner, and a first message in your voice. You check it and send it
- A walkthrough, so you can run it yourself each week

How we build it

We'll connect your LinkedIn and email, write your first set of messages for owners in your sectors, and set up the research helper with your sectors, your tone and what to look for. Then we'll run it once together.

Input Example Testing Ltd

Owner. Founder, in post 22 years, holds the shares

Business. Calibration lab, 35 staff, accredited, steady repeat customers

Why now. Founder's age and length in post suggest an exit within a few years

Hi James, I noticed you've built something unusual here...

ILLUSTRATION

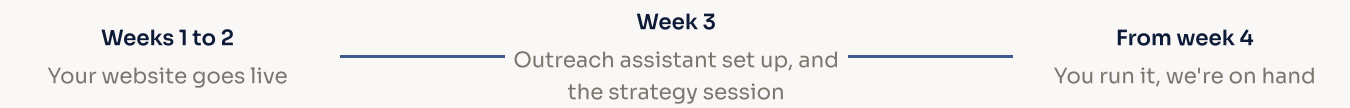

An example of what the research helper gives you. Names and details here are made up.

A strategy session€375

Two hours with us on how to write to owners. What to say first, how to raise your fee early so it never surprises anyone, what to avoid on LinkedIn, and what's working in outreach right now.

Your new website	€2,500, half to start and half at launch
Your outreach assistant	€625
A strategy session	€375
Total	€3,500

Prices in euros, excluding VAT. No monthly fee and no minimum term. Your outreach tools are in your name and billed to you directly, Iemlist at $109 a month and Claude at $20 a month, their list prices on 7 October 2026.

WHEN YOU'RE READY

Buyer's view check	A one page buyer's view, and you get their details	€1,500
AI LinkedIn assistant	Writes to owners on your list and follows up for you	€600, then €75 per meeting
Exit plan builder	An owner says when they'd sell and gets a dated plan by email	€1,500
Who's buying in your sector	Recent deals in your niches, with email alerts for owners	€1,500
Sector value pages	A page for each niche so owners searching Google find you	€500 a page
Anything else	Built, set up or fixed, agreed before we start	€150 an hour

To start, reply to say go and send your story, a photo and how you explain your fee. We'll book our second call for the week after next to walk you through it. If you've got questions, let's chat about them then.

Raka · Astra Agency · raka@astraagency.nl · astraagency.nl